

Your monthly news & updates

Housing YOU Matters is a nonpartisan, broad-based coalition, working together to find solutions for making homes at all price points more economically feasible to develop.

Visit our Website

Upcoming Events

Mark your calendars for July 19th! North County Economic Development Council is hosting a Housing Summit and HYM will be co-sponsoring. Click here to purchase tickets and to find out more details.

SAN DIEGO NORTH
Economic Development Council

Quarterly Coalition Meeting Update

The work of Housing You Matters Coalition was formally kicked off in June 2016. We continued in our quarterly coalition meetings as one was held this past month. More information about the meeting: Quarter Impact Report.

Images: Mayor Faulconer and attendees

Circulate San Diego's Press Conference

Circulate San Diego recently came out with a new report for the Metropolitan Transit System to convert empty parking lots into affordable housing.

Link to Circulate San Diego's Report Summary

Image: Lori and others

Companion Unit Fee Waiver Passes

San Diego City Council votes to waive fees to allow homeowners build granny flats. "One of the fastest and least expensive ways we can increase affordable housing in San Diego is to make it easier to build granny flats," Mayor Faulconer said.

Link to KUSI News Article

Image: Mary Lydon testifying

Middle Income Housing Density Bonus Passes Smart Growth and Land Use

The San Diego City Council's Smart Growth and Land Use Committee advanced regulation proposals intended to encourage middle-income housing construction.

Link to Times of San Diego News Article

Housing You Matters | 619-252-0295 | Email

PLEASE SUPPORT HYM BY MAKING A CONTRIBUTION TODAY!

Like and follow us on Social Media!

HYM newsletter sponsored by

BWE